Auto accidents, said the council, injured 1,400,000 drivers and pedestrians in 1957, and took the lives of 38,500 persons.

What is a disaster wiped out every man, woman and child in Springfield, Ill.? The nation would be profoundly shocked.

Yet a total of 95,000 accidental deaths occurred in 1957 in the United States, about 10,000 more than the population of the Illinois capital city.

Further, accidents in 1957 injured 9,600,000 persons-comparable to the total population of Illinois.

Watch your step with extra care if you're 65 or older. Seventy-four per cent of the deaths from falls in 1957 were of persons 65 or older. Seventy-five per cent of these falls occurred in the home.

PIRATES LOSE By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer General Manager Gabe Paul of Cincinnati doesn't have to look any further than his clubhouse when the time comes for him to consider a manager for the Redlegs in 1959. The fellow who is acting as interim manager -James Joseph Dykes-is doing a whale of a job, just about the best in the majors. When Dykes took over last Aug. 14 after Birdie Tebbetts' sudden resignation, Paul announced that the 61-year-old coach would fill in until a full-time manager was named. He made it plain Jimmy would not manage the Redlegs in

Paul might be in the mood to change his mind today following Cincinnati's sweep of a Sunday doubleheader from Philadelphia 6-2 and 7-3.

12-6 Since Dykes

The double triumph not only secured the Redlegs' fourth place position but extended the club's streak to six straight. Cincinnati has a 12-6 record since Dykes took over. Only Milwaukee has done as well in both majors. The Redlegs were last on Aug. 14.

Milwaukee opened up an 81/2 game lead, as rookie right-hander burgh 2-0. The San Francisco Giants tied the Pirates for second place, drubbing the Los Angeles Dodgers 14-2. Chicago whipped St Louis 8-5 to vacate the cellar.

Two home runs by Ed Baile helped Harvey Haddix gain hi eighth Cincinnati victory in th opener. Johnny Temple also drove in three runs with a pair of hits Don Newcombe went all the wa in the second game for the Red legs for his third straight tri umph. 12-MILE LIMIT

By EDDY GILMORE

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) A British fishing fleet squired by Royal Navy gunboats today defied little Iceland's new 12-mile limit on her territorial waters. So far no trouble has been reported. Britain appeared determined to ignore the ban laid down by her NATO partner, More than 60 British trawlers remained inside the limit after the new decree went into effect at midnight.

"We're all right," the master of the trawler Alfridi of Grimsby said in a ship-to-shore telephone interview. "We're carrying on out here. We've seen no Icelanders.' Opposing the British fleet and its escort of gunboats are six armed Icelandic coast guard vessels and two planes equipped with smoke bombs. Iceland has no army, navy or air force. Take Serious View Iceland increased the limit of her territorial waters from 4 miles offshore to 12 and ordered all foreign fishermen to stay beyond the 12-mile limit after a flurry of lastminute diplomatic activity simed at preventing a breach between Britain and Iceland, both North Atlantic allies.
